

2012 Activities Audit Form

Dear Club/ group as part of the build up to the Olympics 2012 Warwick District Council are auditing a range of partners to find out if any are planning any 2012 related sports, arts or cultural activities/events. We are offering to promote your activity/event free of charge on our website and provide you with access to our 2012 logo for use on any promotional material you produce. We are trying to build a picture of all the 2012 related activities that are being planned in Warwick District so that we can collectively promote them all on one website (www.warwickdc.gov.uk/london2012). There is no deadline for return of forms; we can add details to our website anytime up to the 2012 games.

If you are interested in promoting your activity/event please complete the table and return to address or email stated overleaf. Any information you provide will be promoted on our website.
